BIRTHS

A son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Turner of Olney.

Mrs. J. J. Bardin was hostess of a delightful meeting of the Buckeye Club on Thursday, when sixteen members were present, having with them Mrs. Frank Miller's mother, Mrs. Emma Carey, of Chillicothe. The afternoon passed with dainty pieces of needlework, and refreshments were served before the club adjourned to meet Wednesday, January 28, with Mrs. Howard Sellards of Officers street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chase of Seventh street left this afternoon for Cincinnati to see William Gillett, who is appearing at the Grand this week in the musical comedy, "Dear Brutus."

The members of All Saints' choir will meet at 7 o'clock Saturday evening at the church.

Miss Orlena Goodman, who was recently operated upon in Hempstead hospital for appendicitis, has recovered sufficiently to be moved, to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Goodman, of Fourth street.

New Health Officials

Administrative officials of the new municipal Board of Health are being selected at a meeting of the Board in the city council chamber this afternoon. Among those slated for appointment are Dr. O. D. Tabor as Health Commissioner; Dr. Gilbert R. Mitchell as city physician; and John W. Berndt as secretary.

The salaries of the new officials are to be determined at the meeting today.

WHY NATURE MAKES YOU COUGH IN THE NIGHT

When you wake up coughing, it is Nature's effort to throw off an accumulation of poison to your body that passes under the name of cold. Unless you help, the disease must run its course, and every cold weakens you and opens the way for more dangerous infections such as influenza, pneumonia and tuberculosis. Prevent these dangers and help Nature to throw off the poison of a cold by the use of Duffie's Cough Syrup, a remedy that has made good for over thirty-five years, and which does not contain a harmful drug of any kind.

Thousands of people keep Duffie's Cough Syrup and Duffie's Fifty-Fifty Tonic Laxative in the house for immediate use, because they know their merits. You will do well to stop at your grocer's or your druggist's and take a bottle home with you for the protection of your family.

Mrs. Mary Ann Schapiro of Cleveland is here for a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schapiro of Second street.

Misses Olga and Virginia Stewart of Cedar street, have gone to Huntington to spend the week-end with their grandmother, Mrs. Sophia Nelson.

Robert T. Elliott, of the W. W. Kim, No. Ocean Builders' Co., Chicago, arrived today for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Elliott, of Seventeenth street.

The meeting of the Francis Badger, Grand of All Saints' church, announced for next Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ruth Thompson, has been postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peel of Eighth and Washington streets are visiting in Cincinnati for a few days.

DRYS CUT DOWN WET LEAD; CLAIM DRY VOTERS MISSING

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 16.—James A. White, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, which is contesting the vote by which the drys lost on the national prohibition amendment in Ohio last fall, today filed formal charges of contempt of court against S. A. McNeil, clerk of the Cleveland election board.

White in his affidavits accused McNeil of having violated the order of Judge Cleveland, who is conducting the recount, in opening the precinct packages, taking out the national prohibition ballots and sending them to Columbus instead of sending the precinct packages unopened.

Judge Cleveland announced that he expected to decide during the day whether he would order the arrest of McNeil, who claims he misunderstood orders.

Drys today claimed that ballots from one Cleveland precinct, which gave the drys several votes, arrived in Columbus minus many dry votes.

City In Glare Of Ice

Another glare of ice and sleet covered the street and sidewalks this morning and made walking a hazardous task.

To avoid broken bones, painful bruises and disfigurement, Portsmouth people moved over the ice-covered sidewalks with care and caution. Walking was an exceedingly dangerous job and many people were unable to retain their equilibrium and were victims of city falls.

It was also a bad morning for motorists and their machines skidded and slipped around like a rudderless boat at sea. There were a number of near collisions on the Lawson-Hill street in the East End. Cars without chains disengaged their way over the sidewalk and the drivers were almost helpless at the wheel.

Sleet began falling early this morning and followed a drizzling rain.

Public Installation Of Modern Woodmen

What is expected to be the biggest night in the history of the local camp, No. 3993, Modern Woodmen of America, will take place at the Woodmen Hall this (Friday) evening, beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock, public installation being the magnet that is expected to pack the hall from platform to exits.

The installation will be of a double nature. The newly elected officers of the camp and the order's auxiliary, Royal Neighbors, will be installed amid ceremonies that will be well worth witnessing and seeing, after which refreshments will be served under the supervision of the Royal Neighbors. The general public is invited to attend the ceremonies. Especially is the invitation given to members, their families and friends, and those who have been considering linking up with the Woodmen. This camp has the reputation of doing things in a 100 percent manner, and all who attend the exercises tonight will be amply repaid for the time spent in the hall, which has been appropriately decorated for the occasion. William Bradley, captain of the degree team, is very anxious that every member appear at the hall in uniform at 6:30, sharp. There will be plenty to keep the team busy from then on.

One of the features of the evening will be a drill by several little girls from the First Christian Bible school. The drill will be given under the direction of Mrs. John R. Williams, and it is expected to add much to the enjoyment of the evening. F. W. Sheridan has been named as installing officer. The committee in charge of the program is very anxious that the affair be attended by the public at large. Consider yourself invited—a royal welcome awaits you. There will be plenty of refreshments for the committee have preparations made to feed at least 1000 people—and the committee has taken appetites into consideration.

YOU CAN LIVE IN THE CITY, YET ENJOY THE LOWER COST OF LIVING INCIDENT TO COUNTRY LIFE

This is a message to thrifty readers of The Times.

To a great many of your city neighbors, this idea of shopping in the country is no new story. It is one of the means which they have used, and are using, to help solve the problem of residence in the city where lies all their interest and work, and yet base their living expenses upon the standard of Country Life.

When there is a modern Country General store—where the spirit of the management and the salespeople have kept pace with new ideas in systems and methods, where the one big ideal is that of service, yet where conditions are such that it is possible to obtain the choice of the world's best, in REALLY STANDARD merchandise and the freshest and most select products of a large modern farming community, at often unequalled prices—in the easy reach of a few miles, the plan becomes very practical, indeed.

It is a significant fact that almost any day you will see city shoppers in our store, sometimes eight or ten at once—regular customers, usually, men and women of keen judgment and experience with discriminating tastes—who have discovered and learned to appreciate that, in a great many ways it pays—decidedly—to do at least a part of their buying in a progressive country store.

Now, Brant's isn't a modern department store of cut glass, shimmering silks, gorgeous furs or expensive luxuries alluringly displayed, but a practical, helpful store of the people, with full shelves and complete stocks of goods of substantial quality manufactured by the leading factories of the world. There is the striving, by constant study of price and supply situations, markets, etc., to be of all possible service to all customers, and instead of the ambition to lay aside all the money possible in a given space of time, the desire is to make new friends and build further for the future with Service and Goodwill. Prices are based upon quick and voluminous sales and small margin of profit.

Here you will find amazingly new and up-to-date goods, a breadth of choice in necessities that not all city stores and very few country stores attempt, and not a limited number of the nation's widely known new things.

We invite you to visit our store. You are assured a real, homelike welcome. We know you will not find in our stocks, comprehensive though they are, everything you want—nor will you find our prices all lower than any other store offers, but, on the whole, we believe you will be glad you came, and soon realize the benefits to be derived from a closer acquaintance with one of the country's best sources of supply.

Remember our acquaintance-making sale is still on for another week. We feel sure there are many things offered that will not be duplicated elsewhere—and we know we cannot offer them again soon.

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, babies, news, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

New Boston—Dear Miss Wise—Will you please tell me what days of the week does the Salvation Army have their meetings and what hour does it begin? Please answer this at once.

A READER
They hold services every evening at 7:30 except Monday evening. Their hall is located on the corner of 26th and Chillicothe street.

Dear Dolly—I enclosed 75 cents in a letter for a book. The letter got lost but the publishing company sent me the book anyway and said they were willing to hear the loss. Should I send another 75 cents or not?

WANT TO KNOW
It will be all right to accept the book.

without sending the money. You might, however, write the person signing the letter and thank him for his courtesy.

Dear Dolly—I am a country boy of 16 and have been going with a girl for six months but I don't think she cares much for me. I have brown eyes, dark hair and a fair complexion, and weigh 119 pounds. Am I heavy enough for my complexion. How old does a boy have to be in Ohio before he can get a license without his parents' consent?

BROKEN-HEARTED LOVER
If your heart is broken now I fear it will be shattered to pieces before you are old enough to get married. A boy must be 21 before he can secure a license to marry without the consent of his parents. I can't tell you how much you should weigh without knowing your height. You are too young to have a sweetheart. There is safety in numbers, and if you go with girls at all, you should have different friends.

Dear Miss Wise—I am going with a fellow 21 years old, but before I went with a fellow 27. I am 21 years old and am crazy to marry. Should I take the one 27 back as he might want to marry first? I like them both, but would marry either if I could not him.

SIMPLETON
Better cultivate the acquaintance of both since you are not sure of either one.

Miss Wise—I am going to ask a little information from you. If a man and wife are parted and the wife can prove herself well thought of and respected by everybody who knows her by law, which one gets their child, if it is a boy?

M. R. C.
The mother usually gets the child. If she is capable of taking care of it, but why deprive the boy of the love and protection of his father? Don't you think he is as anxious as you to have his little son with him. Considering all things, don't you think you ought to give him another trial, and see if you can't live in peace and happiness for the sake of your little son?

Dear Miss Wise—I am 15 years of age, and am considered good looking. Now, Dolly, there is a boy who is 14 years of age and he has gone with me a few times and wants to go with me today. I refused, so he went away. Dolly, do you think it would be all right for me to write to him and ask him to come back to Portsmouth to see me, or is it his place to write first?

CURLS
He should write first.

I. H. G.—Why recall unpleasant affairs. If I were you I would forget such things ever happened.

WORRIED WIFE—If Mr. Good don't treat you kindly why associate

Since the membership of the two classes was no near a tie, it was decided that a party for both classes would be a worthy reward.

DON'T BE A "MISERY-FACTORY"

Stop Headaches, Bilious Spells, Colds and Constipation with "Cascarets"—Ideal Physic!

For men and women who can't get going right—who have headache, sore tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach and bowels.

Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels which is now keeping you in constant misery. Cascarets never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience, and Cascarets cost so little, too.

OHIO FOLKS WHO

MADE A DISCOVERY

Cleveland, Ohio.—"Through sweat and heavy lifting I developed a very bad case of woman's weakness. I became all run-down, weak and nervous. I seemed to suffer with pain and aches all through my body. I doctored for some time and was confined to my bed for seven weeks. Nothing seemed to give me any relief until I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery and the combined use of these medicines completely cured me and I have been strong and healthy ever since."

I would say in conclusion that by the time I had taken two bottles I was able to get out of my bed. I am glad to say my name to recommend these good medicines.—Miss M. M. Mousley, 350 Whitman Ave.

Utica, Ohio.—"Seventeen years ago Mr. March when my last baby came, I took cold somehow, but got up the next day. The coldest day I had child and I was in pain in my back and then a high fever. I didn't get again for two weeks. My limbs were stiff and weak and I had to be helped to a chair. I was under the doctor's care all that time. He said I had lung trouble and would not be able to live long. I was very last through the summer. My friend bought me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Pleasant Pellets and Golden Medical Discovery. They cured me and I was well."—Mrs. P. D. Bannister, 216 Orange St.

Sues For Divorce

Charging cruelty, Anna E. Hurst is seeking a divorce in an action filed in common pleas court today through Attorney W. R. Sprague against Clarence Hurst, formerly of this city, now living at Toledo, whom she married at Detroit, Mich., June 28, 1914.

The plaintiff, in her petition, complains that shortly after their marriage Hurst began the habit of drinking and abusing her and that he also frequently struck and beat her and besides threatened to take her life, she says. She further declares that his conduct was so cruel and inhuman she was compelled to separate from him for several months, but took him back only upon his earnest request and promise to do better. After a few weeks he resumed his former cruel treatment, she says, and she left him again in February 1918, since when they have lived apart.

SEEMS EVERYONE HEARD ABOUT IT

All want to try new drug that dries up corns so they lift out

Good news spreads rapidly and drug stores here are kept busy dispensing freebies the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers. A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any pharmacy, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callous.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JANUARY 18

THE BOLDNESS OF PETER AND JOHN.

LESSON TEXT—ACTS 4:1-12.

GOLDEN TEXT—Watch ye, stand fast, in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

1 COR. 16:13.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Matt. 5:12.

ACTS 4:1-12; 11:1-13; 12:1-13.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of Two Brave Men.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Peter and John Standing Up for Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Courage to Be the Right.

1. Peter and John Arrested (vv. 1-4).

1. The Whom Arrested (vv. 1-2).

The priests and Sadducees. The priests were intolerant because these men were preaching about the kingdom of God. They denied them from the synagogue. They denied the resurrection from the dead and the future life. Although they were the intellectual liberals of their day they were very bigoted. The most outstanding bigots of our day are the professed intellectuals whose watchword is

"scholarship."

2. The Result (vv. 3, 4). Peter and John were now put in confinement till the next day. It being too late for trial that day. Though the apostles were held by chains Christ continued to work for the number of believers had now greatly increased. Opposition helps God's cause.

11. Peter and John on Trial (vv. 5-7).

1. The Inquiry (vv. 5-7). They were asked, "By what power, or in what name, have ye done this?" This inquiry admitted the reality of the miracle.

2. Peter's Answer (vv. 8-12). With stinging sarcasm he showed them that they were not being tried as evil doers, but for doing good to the helpless and needy man. He showed the sanctity of dealing with men as creatures who had merely received the gospel and were not to be treated as things. The rulers were placed in a most ridiculous and embarrassing position. Since they could not deny the miracle, Peter boldly declared, "Believe me, ye men of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by his death this man standeth before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought by you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby ye must be saved."

11. The Imprisonment Under the San-hedrin (vv. 13-17).

1. They marvelled (v. 13). The fact that the apostles spoke so boldly, being unlearned men, caused them to marvel. They saw that the behavior and words of Peter were as unusual as the miracle.

2. They took knowledge that they had been with Jesus (v. 13). They saw that though they had killed Jesus, his life and work were being reproduced in his disciples. Being with Christ (1) gives an experiential knowledge of him, and will testify of him and for him. (2) Gives freedom from fear. Peter, who shortly before this quailed before a Jewish mob, was now bold before the great assembly of the Jews. (3) Opens a man's lips. What the heart feels, the mouth must speak out.

3. The judges commanded them not to speak in Christ's name (v. 16).

They could not deny the miracle or gainsay the accusation which Peter brought against them, so they attempted to intimidate them.

4. Peter and John's reply (v. 17).

20). They expressed their determination to obey their instructions—they openly defied the Sanhedrin. "Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye; for we cannot speak the things which we have seen and heard."

By this declaration they republished the authority of the rulers of Israel and set the church in a place of independence from the Jewish state.

Established themselves near the Mongolian frontier south of Irkutsk. Further to the northeast the soviet forces have passed Kalmuk and are believed to have moved southward and westward toward the frontier of Chinese Turkestan. The capture of Boshara, less than 200 miles from the Afghan border, was announced from Moscow a week ago and it was said Krasnodarsk, on the eastern shore of the Caspian Sea, was already in the hands of the red forces. Thus from the Yenisei river to the Caspian, a distance of more than 2,000 miles, the Bolsheviks seem to be quite firmly established. From this line it would appear they might be able to essay incursions toward China to the south, east or Afghanistan and India to the south. Persia lies south of the Caspian Sea and Bolshevik agents are said to be active there.

Thinly veiled threats to resort to methods of terrorism should the Bolsheviks be opposed by the entente are contained in a wireless message received here from Moscow. It is said capital punishment will be inflicted upon enemies of the soviet government only when sentences are approved by the all-Russian extraordinary commission, but a return to wholesale executions was hinted should the entente nations take steps to combat Bolshevism.

LEAGUE COUNCIL'S FIRST MEETING

underlying the covenant of the League of Nations. It is our intention by every means in our power to insure its practical efficiency. It is our firm belief that through its instrumentality alone we can hope to insure that such miseries that the world has experienced during the last five years, shall not be repeated and that a new era of international relationship shall dawn.

The League of Nations is an expression of the universal desire for a more effective method of regulating affairs of mankind, and provides machinery by which practical effect may be given to the principles of international friendship and good understanding the success of the labors of the peace conference is a good augury for the future of the League of Nations. For the first time an attempt was made to bring together under the auspices of the league representatives of governments, employees and laborers, and an advance exceeding the results of the entire work of the previous quarter of a century has been made in the field of international action on industrial questions.

League's Aim To Maintain Peace

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The purpose of the League of Nations, the council of which holds its first meeting in Paris today, was declared in the covenant of the league to be "to promote international co-operation and to achieve international peace and security. This was to be accomplished, according to the covenant, by the nations obligating themselves not to resort to war by prohibiting open, just, and honorable relations between them by establishing international law as an actual rule of conduct among governments and by maintaining justice and a scrupulous respect for all treaty obligations.

Thirty-two nations were to become the original members of the league upon signing the treaty of peace. These nations as listed in the annex to the covenant were: United States of America, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Cuba, Ecuador, France, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Serbia-Croat-Slovene state, Spain, Czechoslovakia and Uruguay.

Of the foregoing nations a number, however, have not yet ratified and signed the peace treaty. Notable among these is the United States, which therefore remains outside the great confederation.

Self-Governing States Admitted
It is provided in the covenant that any fully self-governing state, dominion or colony may become a member of the league under prescribed conditions. Any member may withdraw after two years notice of its intention to do so "provided that all its international obligations and all its obligations under this covenant shall have been fulfilled."

The first secretary general of the league is Sir James Eric Drummond, of Great Britain. The league is composed of a council and an assembly. The council is made up of representatives of the principal allied and associated powers—Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan. The United States is not entitled to membership in the council but it ratifies the peace treaty and agrees to the covenant. The council includes also representatives of Belgium, Brazil, Spain and Greece.

The assembly is to consist of representatives of members of the league, each member to have one vote and not more than three representatives.

To Reduce Armaments
The council shall meet from time to time as occasion may require and at least once a year. One of the important duties of the council is to formulate plans for the reduction of national armaments.

The members of the league undertake to the fullest extent to respect and preserve as entire, external and internal territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members.

In case of war or threat of war the council will meet in special session. Members are pledged to submit matters of dispute to arbitration and not to resort to war until three months after the award.

All treaties of international engagements are to be registered with the secretariat and published. The covenant advocates all obligations between members inconsistent with the terms except such regional understandings as the League decides.

Application of the covenant applies to all territories under the control of member states, colonies, etc., in case of the permanent function of the league.

SIMS TESTIFIES

were made in the awards which involved not only the question of justice, but the morale of the fighting force.

Referring to the case of Commander David Worth Bagley, brother-in-law of Secretary Daniels, whose recommendation for a navy cross was changed by the secretary to a distinguished service medal, Admiral Sims said Commander Bagley was one of the most capable young officers in the service.

The admiral read a letter he wrote Commander Bagley congratulating him on his conduct when his ship, the destroyer Jacob Jones, was sunk by a submarine and then presented a letter from Mr. Daniels asking the admiral what recommendation he had made for medals for Commander Bagley and other officers of the Jacob Jones.

Admiral Sims said he had recommended that commanders of destroyers who were against submarines be recommended for medals.

Declaring that he had read statements in the press that he had recommended every officer on his staff for a D. S. M., the witness said he had recommended only 10 officers for that decoration out of 200, who were on his staff.

Admiral Sims said medals were only a source of trouble to the service in general would be glad if all could be withdrawn and the government "call it square."

The "unfortunate and unnecessary" controversy, he said, had arisen because a policy drafted by the secretary had not been written into instructions to the Raleigh medal award board as he and other officers had agreed to the award.

He had recommended, he said, "three out of 50,000" for medals of honor and "all got something clear" the only honor medal awarded going to Lieutenant Inman, captured by a mine.

CROUP

Spasmodic croup is usually relieved with one application of—submarine after the sinking of the transport President Lincoln. General decoration of officers who lost their ships was without precedent in the history of the world. Admiral Sims said, "Commanders in such cases earned the medal of honor or nothing," he added.

consider the vote by which the emergency clause was defeated and this probably will be voted upon next week.

The legislature adjourned this morning until Monday without taking any further action on taxation legislation. Only 72 members of the house responded to the roll call at 10 o'clock. Approximately half of the absentees were absent without having been excused and may be fined $10 each under the ruling of Speaker Carl R. Knott announced late yesterday, when he announced his determination to break up the policy of members leaving for their homes before the house adjourns for the week.

State Auditors A. V. Donahy, who will withhold the pay of absentees, certified to him, had clerks present in the house checking up on the absentees Thursday morning. The total amount of the fines may exceed $250, it is said.

Only 13 members of the senate were present and the senate adjourned because of lack of a quorum.

There were only 41 out of 77 Republicans and 31 out of the 48 Democrats in the house present.

The house passed two bills this morning, one by Senator O'Brien, of Hamilton, authorizing municipalities to proceed with street improvements and assess the street railway company's share of the cost on the company.

The joint legislative committee on salaries introduced in the house today a teachers' salary bill fixing minimum salaries of $600 for those holding ordinary certificates, $1,000 for those with two years training or holding life certificates, $1,200 for those having special training and holding a bachelor's degree, and $1,400 for those holding a master's degree.

School districts would be required to pay these minimums in order to obtain state aid from the state pension fund proposed in the school revenue bill.

Hickey Is Re-elected

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Club owners of the American Association re-elected Hickey as president here today.

After the adjournment of a 175-page session as the chief business was for consideration. President Hickey was re-elected at the session yesterday and the player limit was increased from 16 to 18 men exclusive of manager. President Hickey's new term will be for three years.

Although some of the club owners favored the adoption of a 175-page session as the chief business, it was believed the majority of the players would vote for a 154 game schedule opening the season April 14, and closing about September 27 or 28.

This Man Gets Back Weight On Vo-La-Tonic

Sees Big Difference In Condition Since Taking "Builder Of Strength"

Says Normal Appetite Has Returned To Him

Can Sleep Soundly Night, Too, And Feels Refreshed In Mornings

When Ernest Elliott of 631 Madison Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio, heard of the remarkable results a friend had derived from taking Vo-La-Tonic, "Builder of Strength," he decided to try it himself.

"My system had been in a run-down condition for a long time," Mr. Elliott said. "Nothing I ate seemed to do me any good and I started losing weight rapidly. My strength and energy were far below what it should have been and I was becoming nervous. I could not get the proper rest and sleep at night."

"I heard about Vo-La-Tonic from a good friend of mine and when he described the remarkable results he had derived from taking the medicine, I decided to give it a trial."

"I haven't been taking Vo-La-Tonic very long but I can see a big difference in my condition."

"My appetite started increasing and now is excellent. I have gained five pounds in weight. I feel better and now I can sleep soundly every night."

"Vo-La-Tonic also caught the nervous trouble that was coming on me and eliminated it so that I get good, refreshing sleep every night."

"I sincerely recommend Vo-La-Tonic to any run-down man or woman because it surely brought back my strength and energy in short order."

"Most weekends, run down and old women lack an appetite and what they do eat doesn't digest properly. As a result the body and system don't get nutrition and gradually grow weaker. Vo-La-Tonic, 'Builder of Strength,' brings a good appetite and quick digestion and helps the stomach take strengthening nutrition from food to nourish and build up the weakened body and system. Vo-La-Tonic also helps the nerves and permits good energy-restoring sleep every night. It normalizes the body and strength results."

"The Vo-La-Tonic expert will be at Fisher & Son's Pharmacy for a few days. Don't fail to see him and talk to him while he is here."

Will You Spend 5c Per Day To Get $1.00 Back?

WILL YOU SPEND 5c TO GET $1.00 BACK

You would be willing to spend 5c per month on each of your hens if you could get $1.00 worth of EXTRA EGGS per month from each hen, wouldn't you? Others are doing this very thing by feeding their hens

DARLINGS Meat Sreaps

You can do the same. It's worth trying. Isn't it? This high grade protein poultry food will give your hens the "egg-a-day" habit all winter long, yet it costs only about 5c a hen per month to feed. Just add a little to your mash or poultry feed, or feed in your hopper, and watch the increase in your egg production.

Look for DARLINGS MEAT SREAPS in all poultry stores. The only way to get the full benefit is to feed it to your hens.

Janitor Turns Detective, Solves Robbery Mystery

Small detective work by Henry Frazier, janitor of the Second Presbyterian church, last night probably solved the mystery surrounding the burglary of the church edifice last Wednesday night and put the police on the road toward a solution of the theft of four pairs of rubber boots from Henry Frazier's construction camp on the 1500 Trail a few nights ago.

Report of the church robbery pointed to William Frazier, 25 years old, white, who was employed by Kuhn to assist him in putting away a quantity of coat delivered to the church in the week. When the janitor encountered Frazier at Third and Chillicothe streets early last evening, his suspicions were heightened by the presence of candle drippings on the floor, the investigation of the burglary having disclosed that the culprit used a candle to light his way about the interior of the church.

Satisfied that Frazier was the guilty man, Kuhn took him in custody and delivered him to police headquarters, where a charge of burglary was lodged against him. Close questioning by Chief Distel elicited the statement from him that he was with Lefe Bertram and Isaac Fisher, local men, when they disposed of two pairs of boots to W. D. Thomas, proprietor of a second-hand store on Second street, last Monday. A report of the sales was made by Thomas on his daily report to the police, confirming Frazier's statement.

Bertram and Fisher were placed under arrest on the strength of Frazier's admission and lodged in city prison charged with burglary.

Entrance to the Second Presbyterian church was through a coal chute into the cellar, from where the thief ascended upstairs without difficulty. Little of value was missing from the church proper, but a locker in a small room, used by the janitor as a storage room, was broken into, the thief forcing open the lock. A razor, razor strap, shaving brush, and a few other minor articles were taken. The brush was found in Frazier's possession after his arrest last night. He told the police an accomplice in the burglary has the razor. Police are looking for the alleged accomplice, who is said to have left the city.

The trio pleaded guilty in municipal court this morning. Frazier to burglary and Bertram and Fisher to petit larceny in connection with the theft of the boots. Frazier was bonded over to the grand jury in the sum of $10,000, while the other two were fined $25 and costs each. They probably will be committed to the county jail in default of payment of their fines.

Lay Helpless Says Mine Boss

"I lay helpless when my wife ordered me to get out of the house from El Paso, Tex.," writes Harry E. Scott, of Dragon, Ariz., in telling of his remarkable recovery.

Mr. Scott's voluntary statement has the true ring of sincerity and gratitude and is unquestionably one of the most remarkable ever given in connection with a proprietary medicine.

Mr. Scott's letter was addressed to C. F. Moss, a well-known druggist at Benson, Ariz., who has the Tanlac agency for that town, and was forwarded by Mr. Moss to the Tanlac office at Atlanta. His letter follows:

Dragon, Ariz.

Dear Sir:

As you expressed a desire to hear me about my case, I will try and tell you part of it. I was down and out nearly all the time for two years with rheumatism and stomach trouble, and went to eight doctors, two of whom were osteopaths. Three of them refused to take my case, saying it was incurable, and the others might as well have done so as they did me no good. I guess I have taken a barrel of medicine, internally and externally. I also went to Hot Springs, and out of all that was ever done, I never got over one week's relief at a time.

After going down to one hundred and sixteen pounds—which is very light for a six-footer—I kept getting worse until I couldn't move, even to feed myself. I had no desire to eat and couldn't sleep more than two hours at night. Some of the officials of the mine, of which I am foreman, would call to see me, and then go out and say, "Poor old Scott has fired his last man." My wife thought I would never get out of bed alive, and she knew my condition better than anybody else.

At last, when I lay helpless, my wife ordered a bottle of Tanlac from the druggist at El Paso, Tex., which was the nearest place we could get it at that time. One evening about four days after I began taking Tanlac, I ate a fair meal and enjoyed it, the first in many months. By the time I had taken half of the first bottle I thought I had a good appetite, but when I finished my second bottle I could hardly eat enough to satisfy me. Well, I have finished my ninth bottle, have gained eighteen pounds and am back on the job every day.

Mrs. Scott and myself are willing to go before a notary and make affidavit as to the truth of every statement in this letter, which you are at liberty to publish and use for the benefit of others.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) HARRY E. SCOTT.

Accompanying the above was a letter from the Moss Pharmacy, addressed to the Tanlac office, Atlanta, Ga., referring in the highest terms to Mr. Scott and his wife and saying they were ready at any time to go before a Notary Public and swear that Tanlac is the only medicine he had ever taken that had any effect on his rheumatism and stomach trouble.

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher and Stretch Pharmacy and by the leading druggists in every town.

TO SINK TEST WELL AT RARDEN

Eighth Grade Commencement

Supt. Frank Appel of the public schools stated today that the eighth grade commencement would be held Thursday night, January 22, in the High School Auditorium. One hundred and three graduates will step from the eighth grade to the first grade of the high school. An appropriate program is being arranged by Supt. Appel.

At present plans do not indicate any possibility of a strike in the early spring for the purpose of striking the sinking of a test well on the A. Forsythe farm, which a number of years ago was abandoned under rather mysterious circumstances. The Forsythe farm, now owned by E. B. Wallace and his wife, is located on a prominent hill overlooking the city. It is owned by a man who has extensive oil and gas interests in West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and is interested in the venture, it is said.

Chicago Service, common 4.04 to 4.10; preferred 7.5 to 7.6; Ohio Gas 46, last sale.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS
CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Considerable weakness manifested itself today in the corn market, owing to depression of foreign exchange rates. Opening quotations, which ranged from 15 to 16c lower, with May 133 to 133 1/8 and July 131 1/2 to 131 3/4, were followed by a slight rally and then by a downward trend. The closing was 1/2 to 1 3/8 cents net lower, with May 132 3/4 to 132 1/2 and July 130 3/4 to 130 1/2. Oats were easier with corn. After opening a shade to 1/2 to 3/4c down, they closed 1/2 to 3/4c down, and then underwent a fresh rally.

Weakness of the grain and hog markets made provisions average lower. Besides, cash demand was slow. Big deliveries on January 14th and 15th, together with the monthly warehouse report, led subsequently to further declines.

PROHIBITION

amount exported is not known but is probably less than 20,000,000 gallons. Attacks on constitutional prohibition have in several states, apparently are not viewed with alarm by the reformers. After the Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of war-time prohibition and the measures to enforce it, prohibition was lodged by Congress with the Bureau of Internal Revenue, which for years has been in close touch with distilling and brewing interests in the collection of excise taxes and active in running down "moonshiners." Evidence collected by the bureau will be used in prosecutions by the Department of Justice. Commissioner Rorer has established an entirely separate division in the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the enforcement of prohibition, headed by John F. Kramer, Cincinnati, Ohio, as prohibition commissioner for the United States. He will have under him nine federal supervisors in charge of his many districts, a director in each state and a mobile force which can be shifted from place to place as conditions demand.

Mr. Rorer has made plain, however, that enforcement of prohibition depends largely on local sentiment and has appealed to citizens of the United States to give their cooperation to upholding the law of the country. Federal forces, he said, would be used to reinforce local efforts, and where any state officer failed in his duty, his constituents would be informed. Approximately $400,000,000 in taxes has been collected annually on alcohol.

From a Mechanical Standpoint

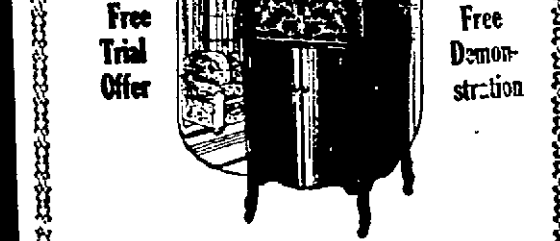

Westrota

Has No Equal in Price

Beginning with the substantial construction of the frame work of the cabinet out of the best fireply mahogany veneer attainable through its seven different rubbings and polishes to give it its beautiful, velvety, soft finish, the Westrota cabinet reflects the price of its beautiful lines.

Its graduated tone arm; the all wood, molded, amplifying chamber creates that wonderful "Natural Tone" in which the "human thrill" is so apparent that you believe the artist in the flesh is actually there.

And the throbbing heart—the life of the instrument—the large, powerful, double spring, fibre loaded, noiseless motor—as solid and substantial and as smooth running as human hands can make it—reflects the service you can expect from your Westrota.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to do it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four cents is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

be beverages, which now will have to be obtained by the government in some other way.

Wine Started in 1808
Prohibition, culminating in the epoch-making amendment to the Constitution, has been growing steadily in this country since 1808, according to records compiled by the Bureau of Temperance of the Methodist Episcopal Church. At that time, a demand for moderation in the use of ardent spirits arose, followed ten years later by an even broader movement for abstinence from ardent spirits and for moderation in the use of malt liquors. This in turn gave way, in 1840, to sentiment for abstinence from all alcoholic beverages.

Agitation for abolition of the practice of licensing the sale of liquors did not come until 1847, resulting four years later in the enactment of prohibition in the first state to do so, Maine. It was followed by Kansas in 1858, and North Dakota in 1889. Meanwhile the movement had grown to such proportions that a National Prohibition party was formed at a convention in Chicago, September 1, 1890.

Women, always in the forefront of the activity of the sale of alcohol to drink, organized for a concerted fight after the famous Women's Crusade, 1874. Their association was later to become known throughout the world by the name of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, with a little white ribbon as its emblem.

Another powerful influence for prohibition came into existence in 1893 with the formation of the Anti-Saloon league. It is noteworthy that both organizations had their inception in Ohio.

The modern wave of prohibition legislation began with Georgia in 1907. Since that time, the movement gained strength more rapidly than any other reform in the history of the world, so that 33 states already have prohibition by state action, in 21 adopted by popular vote and in others by legislative measures. At the time the constitutional amendment was submitted, 24 of the 48 states and considerably more than half the territorial United States, had prohibition. In states where prohibition was not state-wide, it had been adopted under local option laws by many communities.

In addition to the states, there have been in effect stringent measures adopted by Congress as aids toward winning the war, which gave a tremendous impetus to the prohibition movement. Studying the examples of foreign countries, a law was passed making it unlawful to provide any man in uniform with alcoholic beverages. Making of beer and liquor was stopped under the food control act, and the sale of drinks was terminated at midnight, last June 30. Shipment of liquor into any states was prohibited by the bond-dry law.

The constitutional amendment was finally adopted by Congress on December 18, 1917, with a restrictive clause, hitherto unknown in legislative procedure, that it would be operative not less than five nor more than seven years. It required only 13 months. The vote in the House was 281 to 123 and the Senate was 69 to 20.

Submission of the amendment to the states came at a time when many legislatures were assembling. Miss Whipple quickly put its approval on the "mood" of the people. It was ordered by Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Dakota, Maryland, Missouri, Texas, Delaware, South Dakota, Massachusetts, Arizona, Georgia, Louisiana, Florida, Michigan, Ohio, Oklahoma, Maine, Tennessee, Illinois, Colorado, West Virginia, Idaho, California, Indiana, Arkansas, North Carolina, Washington, Alabama, Kansas, Oregon, Utah, Iowa, New Hampshire, and Nevada. It was followed in order by Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Dakota, Maryland, Missouri, Texas, Delaware, South Dakota, Massachusetts, Arizona, Georgia, Louisiana, Florida, Michigan, Ohio, Oklahoma, Maine, Tennessee, Illinois, Colorado, West Virginia, Idaho, California, Indiana, Arkansas, North Carolina, Washington, Alabama, Kansas, Oregon, Utah, Iowa, New Hampshire, and Nevada.

MADE HIM OVER

Mr. Shaw lives at Cosanville, near Athens, Ohio. While in the Nerv-Worth Drug Store at Athens he saw Nerv-Worth on sale, whereupon, prompted by a desire that others should profit by his own happy Nerv-Worth experience, he proffered the following statement and consented to its publication.

To whom it may concern: I wish to voluntarily add my testimonial to those of others in recommending Nerv-Worth. While principal of the schools at Rockland, Ohio, I became run down and nervous from my school work. My stomach bothered me also. My father-in-law recommended Nerv-Worth. I procured it at Boreman's drug store, Parkersburg. After taking two bottles I was almost as good as never. It is a splendid medicine for nervousness and indigestion.

Acting secretary of State Frank L. Polk proclaimed the amendment as part of the Constitution under date of January 16, 1920. It goes into effect one year from the date of ratification by the 36th state. As that took place on January 16, 1919, the amendment is operative according to the Bureau of Internal Revenue, at midnight of tonight.

Drastic Legislation Enacted
To enforce constitutional prohibition, Congress enacted a bill so drastic that a man can be fined or put in jail for even displaying a picture of brewery or a keel. Right to store liquor in home for personal use, stored on, however, against vigorous attacks in both Senate and House.

Alcoholic beverages still may be produced for medicinal and sacramental uses, and alcohol will continue to be made for scientific and industrial purposes, but many safeguards are provided that the law shall not be violated. The home manufacture and consumption of non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices is permitted by law. In the manufacture of cereal drinks, commonly referred to as "near-beer," it was provided that other names shall be used than beer, ale or porter.

Paving Program For The Current Year Is Big One

Commissioners J. H. Appel, W. O. Givley and Jacob Kulmer and County Surveyor Arthur Harwood returned last night from Columbus, where they were in conference with the State Advisory Board yesterday in regard to state aid funds for road improvements in Sevier county during the current year. The local officers returned much encouraged as the state board gave them assurance that this county will share in the distribution of state aid money, the amount of which is yet to be determined, but they were given to understand the amount will be sufficient to enable the local board to carry out its road building program the following season, and which includes the Lawrence county line.

Community Sing Is Great Success

Many Turned Away From Big Auditorium

For the Community Sing, the P. H. Auditorium was crowded, beyond its exits and hundreds turned away, last night. About 1500 music lovers were present, and the mass of eager faces and the splendid music of Miss Alice Blake's orchestra made a most inspiring event.

The success of the affair was due to the leadership of Mrs. S. B. Timmonds, whose charming personality and enthusiasm permeated the atmosphere and inspired those in the audience to raise their voices in the glad spirit of the occasion. Mrs. Timmonds recently finished a course with the War Camp Community Service in New York in conducting community choruses and has received much complimentary comment for her work there. Much of the success is due to Miss Blake's orchestra, the work of Mr. C. E. Studley, who operated the stereopticon machine for throwing the songs on the screen, Miss Harriett Scarff, who directed the children's community chorus. For the Y. W. C. A. work being done in India, the audience gave in silver offerings, more than $150.00.

LIBERTY BONDS TO RELEASE RADICALS

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Thousands of dollars in liberty bonds were taken to Ellis Island by attorneys today to release on bail more men and women arrested in recent raids on extremists. A decision by Federal Judge Knox on Wednesday directed release, on bail, even if the officers have not answered questions of immigration inspectors.

In order to deport Gregory Welsch, "chief of staff" of "Society American," and others who have been released, the immigration authorities are awaiting production of more evidence by the department of justice, which caused their arrest.

The department of labor has ruled that membership in the communist party is cause for deportation, but where the persons arrested do not answer questions the immigration of it is held as an incumbent upon the department of justice to produce proof of such membership.

Only down town bars announced that reservations had been made for festivities despite intimations from federal agents and police that they would be too busy to attend any parties.

Meanwhile, prohibition enforcement plans continued to occupy the attention of the government agents. Mayor A. W. WANT PRACTICE OF SELLING WOMEN STOPPED JUNEAU, ALASKA.—The Alaska Native Brotherhood is endeavoring to stop the practice of selling Indian women in marriage and the custom of collecting black-mail by Indian clans. The organization has appealed to Governor Thomas Rigg, Jr., asking for laws abolishing these two practices, the enforcement and enforcement of the laws but includes many influential citizens of the Alaskan territory. It is the belief of the organization that this practice still exists, and that in October the Eagle can collect agents for the tribal custom of selling women for marriage is contrary to the principles of the American government and detrimental to the rising generation of Indian-Americans in Alaska.

Under the ancient practice of clan blackmail members of one clan upon the death of one of their members, have exacted payment from another clan under threat of death to a member of the clan accused. To show this practice still exists, the Alaska Native Brotherhood submitted an affidavit to the federal custom of self that in October the Eagle can collect agents for the tribal custom of selling women for marriage is contrary to the principles of the American government and detrimental to the rising generation of Indian-Americans in Alaska.

RICE BROS, Portsmouth, O.

NATION IS DRY AT THE STROKE OF 12; JOHN BARLEYCORN CHANTS SWAN SONG

"Let us all celebrate" in the cry of the wet and dry forces for tomorrow morning at one minute after twelve o'clock poor tricky old John Barleycorn will die for the last time after having as many lives as the proverbial cat, and also apparently his full quota of deaths.

No doubt wet supporters will celebrate tonight and early tomorrow morning with all the supplies they have on hand to make the occasion one they will not soon forget. In most places the dry organizations are holding meetings tonight to mark the passing of a wet nation but here the celebration meeting and parade service has been postponed until next month when a fitting program will be given.

Tomorrow will bring dry America's first birthday. As one of the dry leaders has said: "A new nation will be born, dedicated to sobriety and christened with pure sparkling water."

Tomorrow, America will be free to face with a condition and not a theory. Diseste of all speculation whether the lid can be hammered down any tighter than it is at present, whether the fateful date can be made to "stand for" just one more funeral over the body of old John, this is the trenchant act.

On and after tonight the United States becomes by federal enactment, the first nation in all history to enter upon a career of prohibition by constitutional provision.

At midnight, according to the law, the right of restaurant and hotel men, and soft drink establishment owners, to dispense drinks containing more than one-half of one percent of alcohol will end. No person may carry into their places liquor of any kind.

A violation of the law subjects the offender to arrest, heavy fines and imprisonment. It would mean trouble with the federal authorities and very few persons, long residents in the United States care to deal lightly with the law.

Lewiston item is carrying his last after a 100 years' battle. The growth of prohibition has been rapid the last few years. In 1903 there were six states with prohibition, while many other states were "dry" in places.

In the larger cities the wet forces will celebrate in a royal manner tonight, large supplies of liquor having been saved until tonight. In New York a big time is expected the cafes, restaurants and hotels having made plans to dispense many gallons of liquor, some of it free. Gay festivities have been planned by most of the hotels and resorts where liquor was always served instead of water.

Here in Portsmouth the only parties will be those at the private homes. Some have laid in private stock and will invite friends tonight to celebrate the passing of the wet era.

In May, when the dry law went into effect in Ohio, 55 saloons were put out of business in Cuyahoga county. The city's only brewery, the Portsmouth Brewing and Ice Company suspended operations and now the plant is being dismantled, that part of the plant formerly used in brewing beer being repurposed to make an addition to the ice plant. Paul Esselborn, former head of the brewery is now located in another business in Cincinnati. Many of Portsmouth's saloon keepers have already engaged in some other business and the business rooms occupied by the saloons are already occupied.

The wet and dry fight in Ohio was hotly contested for years. The Women's Christian Temperance Union played a big part in the fight. The Union was born in Ohio in 1874-75, as a product of the Women's Crusade. Francis Willard was the founder of the W. C. T. U., and her birthday anniversary, which is the 15th of next month, will be celebrated here by the W. C. T. U., when that organization will hold a rally, and praise meeting.

At that time they will celebrate the singing of the swan song of old John Barleycorn.

Mrs. Louise W. Miller, wife of Attorney Edgar G. Miller, who has been quite ill for some time, will probably be taken to a Cincinnati hospital to undergo an operation within a few days.

For the Blue Triangle Vesper services on Sunday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, Miss Alice Blake will have charge of the music.

SOCIETY

Invitations have been issued for a dance in Ben Hur Hall on Saturday night, when the famous Wiedemeyer Orchestra of Huntington will furnish the music from 8:00 to 12:00. Messrs. Miss Alice Blake, Mrs. W. W. Sam Ware, Dudley Nichols, James Gates, Mrs. J. F. Davis, Mrs. H. E. Goodman and Ralph Asen compose Taylor, Mrs. Howard Williamson, the committee in charge.

Selects Challenged

Herman Kitch, manager of the All-Stars of the Industrial basketball league, has a challenge at Baerman's Selects in the following message to the Times:

"The All-Stars of the Industrial basketball league, challenge the Selects for a game to be played Saturday evening at the High School gym. The All-Stars are picked men from all the teams in the league. Would like to hear promptly from Manager Baerman."

CIRCLEVILLE HI. COMPELLED TO CALL OFF GAME; P. H. S. TO PLAY WAVERLY

The P. H. S. Basketball team will not play Circleville High on Saturday night as scheduled, but instead will play Waverly High at 8 o'clock.

Circleville has a ban on all public gatherings owing to a smallpox epidemic there.

Couch Hess received this advice yesterday, and immediately set about trying to schedule a game with Waverly High for this date, but the frontonsians meet Huntington High tonight, and refused to play tomorrow night.

To prevent keeping the squad inactive over the weekend, the coach has agreed to take on Waverly in their gym on Saturday night.

The game will start at 8 p. m. and a large delegation of P. H. S. students is planning to make the trip on the N. & W. leaving Saturday afternoon and returning Saturday night.

Huntington High Girls Play P. H. S. Tonight

The stage has been cleared for the girls' basketball classic in the High School gym this evening, the participants being the girls of Huntington High and the girls of Portsmouth High in the initial home game of the season.

There is bound to be a battle royal when the representatives of these two rival schools meet on the floor of battle, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand.

The girls of the West Virginia school are quite proficient at the game, this not being their first season at basketball. Earlier in the season they defeated the Ashland High girls.

No lineup has been announced as yet, but it is probable that the same squad as participated in the Ashland day last week will again take the floor representing the red and blue.

The game starts at 8 o'clock.

JUST DOPE

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Heinie Zimmerman will be with the Pittsburgh Pirates next season, according to a rumor in local baseball circles today.

Manager George Gibson, of the Pittsburgh Nationals, is said to have made the Giants an offer for the veteran third baseman, and it is said Manager McGraw of the Giants is determined to dispose of the player, who was suspended just prior to the end of the 1919 season.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 16.—Jack Dempsey, heavy weight champion of the world "is in no sense a slacker or draft dodger," according to a statement made today by John S. Hogan, San Francisco attorney, who headed the exemption board which handled Dempsey's case.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—The University of Michigan basketball team, which trained at Neil park in conjunction with the Senators in 1918 and 1919, will not come to Columbus this spring, according to an announcement that has been made by Wolverine authorities.

Instead of visiting Columbus Carl Lundgren will take his team on a Southern training trip that is to include stops at the Universities of Kentucky, Alabama, Georgia, and Vanderbilt.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 16.—University of Wisconsin's football eleven will play its annual gridiron game against the University of Chicago at Chicago for the next five years.

This arrangement is made necessary because of a peculiar combination in the Wisconsin schedule which would necessitate the elimination of one of the other important gridiron battles if other arrangements were made.

It has also been decided that games with Michigan and Minnesota will close Wisconsin's schedule, alternating each year, Michigan's first game being in 1921.

The Wellston basketball team was swamped at McArthur last night, the Coal Runers being beaten 71 to 3. This is probably the largest basketball score of the season.

Basketball Season To Close On January 20

The basketball committee of the Industrial League met last night and decided to close the basketball season on the 20th of this month, when the N. & W. and the Steel Plant boys clash.

The Steel Plant has not lost a game this season so far, but if the N. & W. boys win, the two teams will be tied for first place. In that case the tie will be played off on the twenty-second.

Pure Bred Calf Club Is Assured In Scioto County

A pure bred calf club for Scioto county is assured.

The committee in charge of forming a club is composed of M. J. Caldwell, Carl Appel, James Edson and Walter Gahn. The committee has been busy the last few days and they have succeeded in signing up ten boys who are to become members of the calf club. The movement is to breed pure bred stock in Scioto county. Angus, Hereford and Short Horn breeds will be distributed among the boys who have joined.

McDermott Youths Arrested

A trio of McDermott youths, Clarence Vantine, 18, Harold Oile, 14, and Louis Oile, 12, were taken into custody yesterday by Sheriff Riskey and brought to the county jail on charges of delinquency following an investigation in connection with the hurling of a stone through a window at the home of Robert Jones in the village, Wednesday night.

After their arrest the lads confessed to throwing the stone which went through the window into the living room and barely missed Mrs. Jones. The lads are being held pending their hearing in Juvenile court.

Failed To Secure Clue

Sheriff E. E. Riskey was summoned to Franklin Furnace yesterday afternoon to investigate a new clue discovered in the A. J. Hyland store robbery there a week ago. The officer returned

N. & W. WINS SIXTH STRAIGHT GAME

The N. and W. won their sixth straight game last night when they defeated the Selby team by the score of 54 to 22. Both organizations had their strongest teams on the floor, but the engine boys completely out-classed their opponents, both in team work and basket throwing. Blake was the star of the game, from the opening whistle to the final foot. He is the life of the team, and it is largely due to his brilliant playing that the N. and W. team is where it is. Englebrecht and Wilson both played a fine game.

For the Selgys, Lavinder and Monk were the stars, making most of the Selby score.

The line-up was as follows:

Selby	N. and W.
Schaffer	Blake
Bilham-Rog	Wilson
Boehner	C
Monk	Englebrecht
Lavinder	Adams
Field goals—Blake 11, Wilson 7, Monk 4, Englebrecht 4, Adams 4, Lavinder 3, Rog 2, Bilham 1.
Field goals—Bilham 1, Rog 1, Wilson 1.

Notice and Guarantee to the Dealer and Consumer

We guarantee this beverage to be perfectly pure, thoroughly fermented, and entirely free from readily fermentable sugars. It is treated under an entirely new and exclusive process, which is known as a complete, continuous and one-operation de-alcoholizing system. It is made from the finest brew possible to be produced from barley and hops. This brew is made with a very high percentage of extract matter, and is thoroughly fermented so as to prevent after fermentation. In the manufacture of this brew NO substitutes are used. The aroma, flavor and general character of the brew is not disturbed in the least, and, in fact, the taste of the beverage is just the same as it was before. In the process used by us all readily fermentable sugars are fermented, leaving the residue extract in a predigested condition which is easily assimilated by the human system. Undoubtedly, therefore, it will be recommended by all reputable physicians, as malt and hops are the most digestive articles to drink.

Since this beverage has been offered to the public we have had numerous inquiries asking whether or not the sale of the same is legal. These inquiries came to us on account of the beverage being so very much like real beer. It is mainly in answer to these inquiries that we are placing this little note in each case. We positively guarantee that this beverage can be sold or consumed anywhere without violating any laws prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor. We also guarantee that no after-fermentation can set in, because, as stated above, the beverage is a thoroughly fermented and finished product. We ask you to kindly compare it with any other cereal beverage and judge for yourself whether or not all the statements we make herein are correct. This is the beverage which we are backing up with our reputation.

This drink does not have to be served frozen, but can be served as the old 4 per cent product was in regard to temperature. Try a sample and be convinced that we have the only pure, nutritious and healthful beverage. It is NOT a checked fermentation. It is free from any drugs which may derange the stomach. We defy any person to say that this drink is not as healthful as the old 4 per cent alcohol product used to be, and claim it is the best on the market. We are anxious to serve and please you.

Yours sincerely,

NAME OF DEAD MAN DRAWN FOR JURY DUTY

Charles W. Brown, Eastern butcher, and O. D. Foster, late contracting painter of this city, who died a few months ago, were drawn for jury service in the United States District court at Cincinnati yesterday.

Brown will serve as a member of the grand jury.

Another juror will be drawn to take the place of Mr. Foster.

BOWLING

Despite the fact that the Rollers shot about 50 more pins than the Scabes at the Play House last night, they dropped two out of three, losing the middle game by a margin of one pin. This game, however, has been protested by the Rollers' captain, not because he and his men cannot take defeat gracefully, but because of an alleged error in the score of "Judge" Frank Lawson, an eminent citizen of the growing Hill-Top, who has been showing improved form of late. The score credits Mr. Lawson with 137, when the captain of the Rollers insists it should be 130, which would give the game to the team by one pin. The Scabes are perfectly willing that the protest be put up to the directors, who will then settle the question. The games last night were full of pep and excitement, and some fair scores were made. The captain of the Rollers was high man with 564, with Captain Patton of the Scabes right near by with 560. However, Captain Patton would have lost a $5,000.00 policy for the more pins, oh-George? Salem Shaw came through in big shape last evening, gathering a total of 534, the first time he has crossed the 500 mark this season, although he should do that about every match and expects to from now on. J. L. Hickey was the third best let, getting 491 and willing to pay a premium for 5 more pins. He is gradually developing and will be up in the line row with bells on soon. The rest of the players were only fair—very fair. Otto Maltzer got 410, although he was always on the road to fame and fortune, but during the closing innings seemed to lose his grip. "Bugs" Burnett was good, bad and fair, getting 436, but turning in a 171 score to show he had not lost the art entirely. Lawson clipped coupons for 48 and a foul, eye, two fouts, both on doubles, cost him 30 or 50 pins—luckily the middle game, for he gathered 7 pins on his last ball—and failed. Shelton had a poor night, but did hard just the same. William Harbeck could not control that reverse ball and while he did fairly well it was capable of much better work. The scores:

League Council Holds First Meeting

NATION-WIDE PROHIBITION IN EFFECT TONIGHT

First Meeting In History Of League Of Nations Held, U. S. Not Represented

PARIS, Jan. 16.—Representatives of France, Great Britain, Italy, Greece, Belgium, Spain, Japan, Portugal and Brazil, members of the council of the League of Nations, met in the "Clock Room" of the French foreign office at 10 o'clock this morning for the first meeting in the history of the league.

The council organized at 10:30 o'clock by electing Leon Bourgeois chairman and confirming the choice of Sir Eric Drummond, of Great Britain, as general secretary.

The first official act of the council was the appointment of a commission to trace up on the spot the frontiers of the territory of the Sarre basin.

COAL SHORTAGE AT STEEL MILLS

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 16.—Steel mills of the Mahoning valley will have to curtail operations more sharply within a short time unless the coal situation improves, it was stated today at the office of all plants except those of the Carnegie Steel Company, which reported a fair supply. The two largest mills, employing over 20,000 men, reported they are running on a

WEATHER

OHIO.—Snow tonight. Saturday cloudy. Probably local snows in the north portion and colder in south portion.

PROGRESS IN COMPROMISE MOVEMENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 16.—While it was said no actual agreements had been reached, leaders on both sides of the senate treaty fight today expressed belief that some progress in the compromise movement was made at the bi-partisan "round table" meeting of faction leaders yesterday and that the continuation of the conference arranged for tomorrow might pave the way for a final settlement.

The meeting was participated in by four Republicans and five Democrats, including Senator Lodge, Republican leader, and Senator Mitchell, administration leader, and marked the first formal step in the negotiations for compromise reservations to the peace treaty.

The Lodge reservations were the basis of discussion at the meeting which lasted for two hours, and although no suggestions in writing were made by the Democrats, it was said numerous verbal changes were proposed. These were taken under advisement by the Republicans and hope was expressed by both sides that at the meeting Saturday, or at subsequent meetings, formal drafts of compromise proposals will be submitted.

Outbreaks In German Towns

BERLIN, Jan. 16.—Several persons have been killed and wounded in disturbances at Duisburg, Stechraide, and other towns in the industrial district, where twenty thousand miners are striking. The Duisburg region has been declared under a strict state of siege.

Troops have intervened at Frankfurt to enforce orders prohibiting an independent Socialist demonstration protesting against "the assassins" of Berlin.

BERLIN, Thursday, Jan. 16.—Attempts of radical labor leaders to provoke a general strike today as a protest against the shooting of members of which stormed the reichstag building on Tuesday, failed completely.

Many Shipbuilders Are Implicated In Frauds, Alleged

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Jan. 16.—The next step in the investigation of alleged frauds involving many millions of dollars in "Pacific coast" shipyards today was expected to be announced from Seattle, Washington. Bert Schliesinger, special assistant to the United States attorney general, said there was "no special significance" in his proposed trip to Seattle, but a federal grand jury has been called to meet there next week.

Of a score of prominent shipbuilders said to have been involved in the investigation, Washington advices said at least seven were concerned in the alleged fraud. Mr. Schliesinger declined to estimate the amount of money involved, but was quoted as denying it would reach a billion dollars, although intimating twenty millions might be too small an estimate. It was understood Attorney General Palmer had ordered the United States Shipping Board to hold up claims aggregating $37,000,000 to await the outcome of the inquiry.

Cost-plus contracts, by which builders were permitted to claim 10 per cent over what they said was actual cost of production of vessels during the war, was said to have been the medium of the alleged frauds.

That an investigation had been conducted in Oregon, Washington and California became known yesterday, when William H. Tidwell, special agent of the treasury department, was appointed chief assistant to Mr. Schliesinger.

The sessions of the Seattle grand jury will be the first of a series to be held in other large cities of the coast, it was said.

Thieves Prepare For Drought

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 16.—On the eve of the permanent "drought" for the nation, thieves early today stole liquor valued at $3,000 from a private stock in the cellar of Mike Bupich, here. The liquor taken included 16 cases of bonded whiskey, 20 gallons of rum and three cases of brandy.

ABSENTEES IN HOUSE FACE FINE

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 16.—Regard for Speaker Kimball's threat to fine $10 every member of the house who is not present at 10 o'clock today unless excused, it is not expected there will be enough members present to transact business. In case a quorum is not present the house will be compelled to adjourn until Monday evening.

Speaker Kimball announced that he would invoke the penalty after demonstrators had defeated a resolution to adjourn last evening until Monday. Notwithstanding the threat, many members went home last night.

After Speaker Kimball had announced that he would invoke the penalty for members absent without leave, several democrats threatened to retaliate by holding the house in session over Sunday. This, however, was declared to be an idle threat, as only a majority of those present can force adjournment today until Monday, or if there is a quorum, adjournment will be automatically.

Telegrams ordering their presence at 10 o'clock were sent to all members absent without leave. The fines will be deducted from their salaries by the state auditor.

STATES ENTER ON DRY PERIOD AT MIDNIGHT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Constitutional prohibition becomes effective at midnight tonight.

From 12:01 a. m., the "manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes" is prohibited by the 18th amendment to the Constitution, and the United States becomes the first free of the world to make such a provision part of its basic law. Congress has defined an intoxicating liquor as any beverage containing one-half of one percent, or more, of alcohol.

Actually, the advent of constitutional prohibition will make little difference in the daily life of the people of this country, as they have been living under the nationwide war-time ban on alcoholic drinks since last July. There have been eager hopes anticipated by the thirsty by distillers and by speculators holding large quantities of whiskey for higher prices, that wartime prohibition would be lifted before today in accordance with the recommendation of President Wilson to Congress. But Congress refused to do so, and the world spell now about to begin under authority of the nation's Constitution, which prohibitionists declare will continue in effect for all time (inasmuch as it could be revoked only by the same manner in which it came into existence, will permit no opportunity of the replacement of private property or the unloading of investment stocks. There are cases pending in the Supreme Court, however, attacking constitutional prohibition.

Much Whiskey In Warehouses

Thousands of gallons of whiskey remain in bonded warehouses with no chance to be sold at prevailing high prices. The liquor can be taken out only for medicinal and scientific uses with the Bureau of Internal Revenue exacting exorbitant prices to see that none of it is used in violation of the law. During the last two months many owners of alcoholic liquors, foreseeing no opportunity for sale in this country, have endeavored to rush the surplus to other countries. Lack of shipping space prevented more than a fraction being exported. Cuba and the Bahamas have received most of what was sent abroad. There were 70,000,000 gallons on hand when war-time prohibition went into effect. The amount exported is not known but is probably less than 20,000,000 gallons. Attacks on constitutional prohibition

ATTEMPTING TO UNTANGLE THE TAXATION SITUATION

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 16.—Following a week of chaos in the consideration of taxation legislation, the joint taxation committee of the legislature last night began to untangle the situation. It recommended the passage of the Gardner bill, which provides for removing the interest and sinking fund levies from the tax mills limitation of this state's one per cent law; also the enactment of a temporary measure that would furnish financial relief for cities during the present year. The Gardner bill, if passed, would provide no relief until 1921.

The committee's action was taken after the Republican state advisory and central committees in joint session had failed to endorse the proposition to remove the sinking fund, but appoint a committee to study the situation and advise with majority leaders. Only one Democrat member of the taxation committee, Senator Agnew, of Cleveland, voted to recommend the Gardner bill. It is not expected that the Gardner bill will be up for consideration in the house until the middle of next week.

The school relief bill, the committee decided, will have to wait action on the Gardner bill as provisions of the two overlap. It also is said to be probable that the debt limitation constitutional amendment will not be pressed until after the Gardner bill is out of the way.

Dry leaders will make another attempt next week to pass the Crable prohibition enforcement bill as an emergency measure. Representative Crable has a motion pending to consider the vote by which the emergency clause was defeated. This probably will be voted upon next week.

CIRCLEVILLE HI COMPELLED TO CALL OFF GAME; P. H. S. TO PLAY WAVERLY

The P. H. S. basketball team will not meet Circleville High on Saturday night as scheduled, but instead will lock horns with Waverly High at Waverly.

Circleville has a ban on all public gatherings owing to a smallpox epidemic there.

Coach Hess received this advice yesterday, and immediately set about trying to schedule a game with Fronton High for this date, but the frontonians meet Huntington High tonight, and refused to play tomorrow night.

To prevent keeping the squad inactive over the weekend, the coach has agreed to take on Waverly in their gym on Saturday night.

The game will start at 8 p. m. and a large delegation of P. H. S. students is planning to make the trip on the N. & W. leaving Saturday afternoon and returning Saturday night.

Huntington High Girls Play P. H. S. Tonight

The stage has been cleared for the girls' basketball classic in the High School gym this evening, the participants being the girls of Huntington High and the girls of Portsmouth High in the initial home game of the season.

There is bound to be a battle royal when the representatives of these two rival schools meet on the floor of battle, and a large crowd is expected to be on hand.

The girls of the West Virginia school are quite proficient at the door game, this not being their first season at basketball. Earlier in the season they defeated the Ashland High girls.

No lineup has been announced as yet, but it is probable that the same squad as participated in the Ashland fray last week will again take the floor representing the red and blue.

The game starts at 8 o'clock.

Team Will Go South

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—The University of Michigan baseball team, which trained at Still mark in conjunction with the Senators in 1918 and 1919, will not come to Columbus this spring, according to an announcement that has been made by Wolverine authorities.

Instead of visiting Columbus Carl Lundgren will take his team on a Southern training trip, that is to include stops at the Universities of Kentucky, Alabama, Georgia, and Vanderbilt.

Wisconsin's Schedule

MADISON, WIS., Jan. 16.—University of Wisconsin's football eleven will play its annual gridiron game against the University of Chicago at Chicago for the next five years.

This arrangement is made necessary because of a peculiar combination in the Wisconsin schedule which would necessitate the elimination of one of the other important gridiron battles if other arrangements were made.

It has also been decided that games with Michigan and Minnesota will close Wisconsin's schedule, alternating each year, Michigan's first game being in 1921.

BRITISH WILL FAVOR CARPENTIER

LONDON, Jan. 16.—If Dempsey fights Carpenter in England, the American will have few losers except those he brings along.

The British are for Carpenter. "They'll go to the fight hoping Carpenter will, routing for Carpenter and a good many of them, betting on Carpenter."

There are several reasons. He is a European and the British resent America's seven heavyweight champions to their one. Then the British have an untold admiration for Carpenter's speed and headwork. Carpenter would be almost a universal favorite in Britain because Dempsey is bigger and heavier than the Frenchman.

E. J. Anglin, who refereed the Beckett-Carpenter match, says, for example, "A gallant Frenchman has won his way almost to the pinnacle of boxing fame. If he should meet Dempsey in London and beat him, London would cheer him just as heartily as if he were a Britisher."

Lloyd's Sunday News says: "What a battle the Dempsey-Carpenter match will be — and with the odds here not on the American. For most of those who saw Carpenter best Beckett are convinced that they had seen Beckett beaten by the future champion of the world."

Ted Lewis, English boxer, says: "I have seen Dempsey in most of his fights, and you can take it from me that he will surely go under to Carpenter."

Referee Anglin is not so sure. George can beat Dempsey, "I am told," says Anglin, "though I have never seen Dempsey, that he is the fastest heavy weight America has had for years. If this is so it means a severe match for the Frenchman."

N. & W. WINS SIXTH STRAIGHT GAME

The N. and W. won their sixth straight game last night when they defeated the Selby team by the score of 51 to 22. Both organizations had their strongest teams on the floor, but the engine boys completely outclassed their opponents, both in team work and basket throwing. Blake was the star of the game, from the opening whistle to the final foot. He is the life of the team, and it is largely due to his brilliant playing that the N. and W. team is where it is. Englebrecht and Wilson both played a fine game.

For the Selbys, Lavender and Monk were the stars, making most of the Selby score.

The lineup was as follows:

N. and W.	Selby
Schaefer	RF
Bilham-Reeg	LF
Roelker	C
Monk	RC
Lavender	LC
Field goals—Blake 11, Wilson 7, Monk 4, Englebrecht 4, Adams 4, Lavender 3, Reeg 2, Bilham 1.
Free goals—Bilham 1, Reeg 1, Wilson 1.

Unique Belgian Sport

Sand-boat racing is a sport enjoyed by Belgians and visitors along the sand dunes of La Panne. The boats are so named because they are sailed on the shore. A small frame is spread on four wheels and on the cross bars of the frame is set a good sized mast and sail. This wheeled craft is guided by a rope, as boys steer a gull-ledge or a small wheel. In a good breeze the boats make 15 to 20 miles an hour. The sand sailor can tack or turn his craft around just as easily as if he were sailing on water.

FISHERMEN HAIL IN 300-POUND TURTLES WHICH FORM PART OF TASTY MINCEMEAT

Part of day's haul of shark and turtles by fishermen at St. Petersburg, Fla. While turtle fishing isn't half as exciting as angling for tarpon sharks at the southern gulf resorts the fishermen pull in the big 200 and 300 pound turtles along with their other catches as the turtles are in demand for supplying meat for mincemeat put up by big manufacturing concerns. The photo shows the immense turtles caught along with shark and tarpon in Tampa Bay, Boca Ceiga Bay and the waters of the Gulf of Mexico at St. Petersburg, Fla. Over 600 varieties of fish are to be found in the three waters named.

BOWLING

Despite the fact that the Rollers shot about 50 more pins than the Scribes at the Play House last night, they dropped two out of three, losing the middle game by a margin of one pin. This game, however, has been protested by the Rollers' captain, not because he and his men cannot take defeat gracefully, but because of an alleged error in the score of "Judge" Frank Rawson, an eminent citizen of the growing Hill-Top, who has been showing improved form of late. The score credits Mr. Rawson with 137, when the captain of the Rollers insist it should be 133, which would give the game to this team by one pin. The Scribes are perfectly willing that the protest be put up to the directors, who will throw out the question. The games last night were full of pep and excitement, and some fair scores were made. The captain of the Rollers was high man with 564, with Captain Patton of the Scribes right near by with 560. However, Captain Patton would have let slipped a $5,000.00 policy for five more pins, oh-George! Salem Shaw came through in big shape last evening, gathering a total of 534, the first time he has crossed the 500 mark this season, although he should do that stunt every match and expects to from now on. J. E. Riskey was the third best bet, getting 491 and willing to pay a premium for 9 more pins. He is gradually developing and will be up in the king row with bells on soon. The rest of the players were only fair—very fair. Otto Maltzer got 419, although he was always on the road to fame and fortune, but during the closing innings seemed to lose his grip. "Pape" Burnett was good, had and fair, getting 434, but turning in a 141 score to show he had not lost the art entirely. Rawson clipped coupons for 416 and a foul, eye, two fouls, both on doubles, cost him 40 or 50 pins each. He is gradually developing and will be up in the king row with bells on soon. AS ALWAYS BELATED

He travels on the wings of the wind; nowadays we might more illustratively say it is always carried as the cargo of an aeroplane. Contrariwise truth moves on the same leaden feet.

In a case in point much of a stir was created by the allegation, arising from the arranged fight between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier, a French fighter of much renown, both in the ring and in the air, that Jack Dempsey was a shacker, the specific charge being that he dodged military service by claiming exemption as a skilled worker in government ship building yards. So much feeling was aroused that posts of the American legion made it a part of their regular business to pass resolutions condemning Dempsey as unfit to represent America for the fistie champion of the world. Now it comes out at a rather late date that Dempsey is a married man and besides supports his old mother, and invalid brother and unmarried sister. He was, therefore, doubly entitled to exemption, but he never claimed it.

It's rather odd, but we had a sort of remote interest in this approaching Dempsey-Carpentier fight, because rather oddly, both our great grandfathers were in maidenhood Miss Carpentier, though that doesn't entitle us to claim to be something of a sport because we are not related to the Frenchman, because the ancestors were Spaniards. Anyway we are going to lay our small coin of the land on Dempsey, because he has got the real red blood of the wild sod in his veins and is an American. That is we are going to do so unless the Hon. Wells A. Hutchins whispers to us in a loud voice that Jack is going to win. And costly experience has taught us to copper all of "Hutchins" dead sure things.

THEY KNOW WHAT THEY WANT

PUBLISHERS of northern Illinois papers met at Chicago, this week, and, after a sumptuous free banquet, resolved profoundly and unanimously that they were opposed to the repeal of the zone law.

Be it known that the zone law is a postal measure that particularly affects newspapers. Its main feature is that the further a periodical is carried the more shall be charged for carriage. This contravenes the old regulation, which ran to the effect no matter whether a paper or magazine, mailed by the publisher, was carried a mile outside the county or three thousand miles the charge would be just the same. As county seat weeklies and so called inland dailies have comparatively small mail circulation outside their own counties, the law was practically a discrimination in their favor and against the metropolitan papers and the magazines, whose mail circulation is all outside their counties.

The Sucker publishers, we opine, are proceeding on the theory that it is better to lose a finger, without whispering, than to win and lose a leg. For no matter how logical the zone law may be it isn't fair, newspapers not being charged the postage rates that in justice to the public they should be compelled to pay. It isn't pretty, however, to wish to retain a law that discriminates against their brothers of the city and whose flunimations against Postmaster General Burleson they are so anxious to echo, knowing as they do that inciting basis of them is that Burleson is held responsible for the zone law, but which is more the devising of one Charles Evans Hughes.

WHAT THE STUDENTS SAY

A plebeian of the students of the numerous colleges of the country has been taken on the peace treaty, or perhaps, better, the league of nations.

Like the different phases in which the matter was put the thing was rather involved. It stood out with some distinctness, however, that an overwhelming majority of the students were for ratifying the treaty, or league, in some manner or other, and on the straight out matter of ratifying, or rejecting without qualification either way the ratificationists were in an impressive plurality.

As far as the reports are concerned they are almost solely from the north and west. Such returns as have been received from the south show a well nigh solid vote for approval, without so much as the dotting of an i, or the crossing of a t.

The referendum can scarcely be taken as the deliberate and intelligent expression of the views of the students upon the issues presented. There has been so much pitiful disputation and bitter wrangling in the senate over the international agreement that the feeling towards it is one of disgust and the general disposition is to consent to anything that will get it out of the way.

Thief Visits Laboratory

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Thoughts while strolling around Manhattan: There's a touch of gloom about Second avenue. Little patches of Paris from the children. Most of them from northeastern Europe. Migrant atmosphere. There's Mr. Mark's. Has an incandescent cross at night. Stoops crowded with wide-faced Swedish women with jagged teeth. Mumble as you pass. Makes me creepy. Paper flowers in the flat windows.

Polish girls with full faces and slender thighs wear imitation of Fifth Avenue style. Row of hunchbacks in front of an Orthodox house. Women pushing baby cabs look young. Hunchbacks drag along pulling charrettes. Someone called them the halcyon-great mothers. Little cheap shops and stalls with Shave putouts. Little cafes have multipleged human-worms roasting in the windows. Queer, queer dishes.

A bald-headed ladies' tailor sewing in his window and putting away at a night. Looks happy and contented. Glad Christmas is over. Everybody fears they will get some of that queer liquor. After years hence the victims may be on tablets as martyrs to fanaticism. Who knows? Rich people are leaving their fortunes to servants.

Girl schools ought to turn out first-class lady's maids. There's a real career for any girl. Fifth avenue mistresses paying some of them $10 a week and board—and cast-off clothes. And the last item means something these perdition days. Many a girl is tossing a couple of workmen looks like a preacher. Maybe he is. Lot of them going into laundries.

Still have the movie thrillers over here. Dick and pistol. Gagged women. Silken mustached villains. I like still pictures myself. Think I'll be one. Still I don't believe my wife would let me push cart peddlers huddle over little church fires. Never seem to smile. Think I'll go up on Broadway where there's life and laughter.

A crap game was one of the exciting episodes in a newly-launched play on Broadway. The critics had unfortunately gone to the smoking room for a few drags at their cigarettes and missed it. But the second night critic—the magazine men—declared it was the most exciting bit of drama seen this year. Woman in evening gowns in the boxes applauded enthusiastically.

It was a thirty crowd of Americans who left New York on a big French liner a week ago. When they got out far enough for the bar to open champagne popped and ice tinkled merrily in highball glasses. As a result the ship dry and only those who had brought their flasks could get a single drop. Waiters at the high class hotels who made $50 a week and about $10 more in tips are said to be making $2,000 a week on liners leaving this port.

BILLY WHISKERS

BY FRANCES TRECOT MONTGOMERY

When Billy Whiskers, entering the parlor, heard some one tell Susie, the maid, to investigate the noises downstairs, he started to run, but the door at the end of the hall had thrown shut, and the only other way of escape was up the front stairs. As he reached the top, he saw Susie, who had been scrubbing the top of the back stairs, throw down her brush preparatory to going to see what the noise was. "They had caught sight of each other at the same moment," and Susie thought the long, sinister looking, scatted bearded fellow with the horns, that appeared at the top of the stairs, was an evil spirit, and with a blood-curdling scream she threw up her hands and rolled to the foot of the stairs, up-flitting the path of a suds that she had chucked when she felt herself falling. There she lay hand, just in time to get pulled into by Billy, which laid her flat on her back in less time than you can wink. As luck would have it, the shock made her open her mouth and the suds flew out, for she had swallowed them so she would never have gotten off her back.

Billy Whiskers gave her one look when he saw what he had done, and turned and fled down the stairs, and Mr. Biggs, who was just coming in, and Billy being a big goat, and Mr. Biggs a short, stout man, there was not much room to go through, but it was the first daylight Billy had seen, so he gave Mr. Biggs a boost as he straddled his back, which helped him to fall off, over the side of the porch, where he landed in a nice soft bed of geraniums.

As Billy was a knowing goat, he decided that they would not care for him after what had happened, nor look for him if he disappeared, so seeing the front gate open he ran out and trotted down the road, and that was the last that was heard of him. His surname was right. The Biggs never even looked for him.

(In tomorrow's story Billy visits a soda fountain.)

Marion Le Roy Burton, the tallest university president in the United States, is to draw the tallest salary in the business when he goes to the University of Michigan next July. It is to be $18,000 a year with an additional allowance of $3,500 for household expenses.

Why should the University of Michigan be willing to pay Dr. Burton more than double what the present head of the institution is getting? A glimpse at the man's career may furnish a clue.

From a newsboy shivering at street corners to president of the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis, the city in which he used to sell papers—yes, and pick up wood in the streets to keep the family warm of cold winter nights—that's the kind of human experience America loves, the kind that proves this country does offer opportunity. It's the experience Dr. Burton has.

In the varied and exacting tests given Dr. Burton from the day he assumed the presidency of Minnesota University two years and a half ago, he has stood the gaff. Michigan will find him living up to its nickname of "Ever Ready," conferred by the neighbors in Minneapolis. Minn., when he was principal of Widener Institute there about twenty years ago—conferred because of his habit of perpetual preparedness in opinion, decision, speech and action, as well as fitting in with a physical characteristic that warms strangers to him. Michigan will find him ready to talk, and talk well, on any subject, at any time, at any length.

In address, Dr. Burton is direct, neighborly, intimate. From one end of the state to the other Michigan audiences are due to be told things "with the brutal frankness of a blood relative." That's one of the doctor's favorite expressions.

Seven years as president of Smith college, a "girls' school," did not "hiss" Marion Burton, nor did one year in a Brooklyn church pulpit make him a "red" man. He does not exclude sanctity.

While on the Burton oratorical qualities, one should not neglect mention of his persuasive powers, for the 1912 Minnesota legislature voted more money for the state university than had ever been voted for any other university by any state before.

President Burton believes in publicity of university activities, is an earnest co-operator in all efforts to have the state know what the university is doing and striving to do for its people.

He is two years and a half at the University of Minnesota have been too short to permit him to get more than started the Burton idea of developing a great university. The great war curtailed university activities, compelled centering of much of the curriculum on war preparations, and its cutting has caused efforts to pick up broken strings and get machinery in peace-time operation.

Dr. Burton will be remembered in Minnesota as a great, lovable, whole-souled neighbor. He played checker, ping and faculty distempers on the campus and effected team work. He has been welcome in all kinds of gatherings. The people trust him and like him.

SHE MARRIED AN AVERAGE MAN

It is a test of character indeed when a wife has to stand directly with some woman who plays, or has played, a part in her husband's life. The husband's interest in the "other woman" may have died. The interest itself may never have been serious. Yet, a despicable thing, its an unpleasant business—this being confronted with shadows. It cuts on the nerves. It upsets the equilibrium. It excoriates.

This is how I feel about that Fanny Frisbie episode yesterday. "Poor thing," I pity her from my heart, drug fiend and drifter as she is. And I know Jim cares nothing about her save as a woman who once was the wife of his friend.

It annoys me to think I think about it. I'm mad at myself because I feel a sense of resentment against Fanny and against Jim and against the encroachment, slight as it was, upon territory that is mine alone.

Am I different from other women, I wonder? More unreasonable? How do other wives feel about such things? But of course one cannot generalize. There are wives who know their husbands not only have had amours by the score in the past, but have plenty of present ones going on meretrically all the time; yet they resolutely shut their eyes and, like the ostrich with its head in the sand, feel safe because they do not see the danger.

Such wives often get credit for being noble and wise. I call them weak or selfish. They are afraid to look facts fairly in the face. They would avoid knowledge because of the penalty it carries. They are willing to be one of a harem, so long as they do not come in contact with the other inmates. They either have no self-respect, or consider self-respect a matter of how much other people see.

Ab, what a fine bearded woman spoke these simple words! Great enough to humble her pride. Wise enough to understand the polygamists' instincts of man. Above jealousy, willing to set aside her own rights for long enough to sympathize with the love weakness of another woman. Greater love hath no woman than this: To lay down her rights for another. Not with the complacency of the selfish reward, but with the nobility of a wise, kind heart.

Could I do it? I, who felt resentful toward Jim over poor Fanny Frisbie? I, who have my full quota of pique, jealousies and tempers? I don't know. But I do know the story of this forlorn wife is an inspiration to me. It teaches me a prayer: "Keep me from reticence; let me be great enough to love forgivingly." (To be continued)
